REPORT OF A BATTLE.

It Is Said To Have Occurred
Off Isle of Tortuga.

NO OFFICIAL INFORMATION.

All That Is Known Is That Heavy Firing Was Heard.

MAY HAVE BEEN TARGET FIRING.

The Cannonading Lasted All Day Sunday, and the Report of It Causes Quite a Sensation In the Little Island Republic of Haiti.

Port au Prince, May 18.—A great sensation was caused here by the arrival of the military commandant of the Isle of Tortuga, off the northwest coast of Haiti, and due north of Port de Paix, near the entrance to the Windward passage, who brought word to the Haitian war department of what is believed to have been a naval engagement on Sunday. The commandant reached Port de Paix from the Isle of Tortuga in a canoe. He reported to the war office that throughout the whole of Sunday a very persistent cannonading had been heard east of the island, and that from its duration and intensity there was a strong presumption that a very serious action was in progress.

[The Isle of Tortuga (La Tortue) is just east of the northern entrance of the Windward passage and is a cable station, but nothing has been received from there by cable. As the firing was heard east of there it is not at all probable the Spanish Cape de Verde squadron had anything to do with it, as they are not apt to venture in that direction. Had the firing been heard west of the island there would be some reason to believe the two fleets had met in battle. Sampson was probably in that locality at that time.]

TRUSTING IN GOD,
But Something More Than That Is Required In War.

Madrid, May 18.—At the moment of his departure from the Cape Verde Islands, Admiral Cervera, in command of the Spanish squadron in West Indian waters, made the following address to the crews of his ships:

After three years of struggle in Cuba we were nearing the end of the trouble, which certainly would have been ended three months ago but for America's aid. That nation, believing she had created by underhand means a thousand embarrassments, but that nevertheless she would not be able to attain the object of her ambition, at last threw off the mask, and when the insurrection was on its last legs, commenced against us the most unjust war in the history of the world.

Spain did not wish for war. Her conduct proved this. She conceded everything a self-respecting nation could concede, but the Americans, whose ambition is insatiable, always asked for something more, and even what belonged to us—that land, discovered by Spaniards led by Columbus.

Forward, then, to the war, since we are forced thereto by the Americans' blind ambition. But, let us enter the conflict as did the Spaniards of old, strong in their rights and trustful in God, who will never abandon a just cause and who will aid our efforts.

I need not enjoin discipline among you, for during the past six months you have been under my command, I have only had cause for congratulations. Nor need I call on you to do your duty conscientiously, especially during the watches, which will often be most trying. Still less need I urge you to display courage. You are Spaniards, and that is sufficient in war.

Then, when I lead you to battle, have confidence in your chiefs, and the nation, whose eye is upon you, will see that Spain today is the Spain of all time.

Viva Espana! Viva El Rey! Viva El Rena Regente!

TO AID THE HARVARD

In Escaping From the Spanish Torpedo Boat Destroyer.

New York, May 18.—There are assurances that the war board has found a way to get the Harvard out of St. Pierre harbor without risk of destruction by the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror.

It involves the use of the Yale and the Montgomery to watch the port at the 3-mile limit, to wait until the Harvard appears, and then to be prepared, in case the Terror follows, or other Spanish torpedo boat destroyers come along, to fall upon them with their heavy and light rapid fire guns and destroy them.

Waiting For the Sneaks.

Washington, May 18.—The general impression is that no particular effort is to be made just now to pursue the Spaniards so long as they keep within the confines of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean sea, but that Sampson and Schley in combination will encircle the island of Cuba, maintain the blockade and convoy troops across the Florida straits, if necessary, meanwhile simply keeping a watch on the Spanish flying squadron to see that it does not do mischief either to the American fleet or escape into the Atlantic to the seacoast cities.

An Unlikely Story.

Cardenas, Cuba, May 18.—A small American naval vessel was blown up while attempting to remove torpedoes from this harbor. Her crew of 18 perished.

Spanish Vessels at Martinique.

St. Pierre, Martinique, May 18.—The Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror and the hospital ship Alicante are still at Fort de France. It is rumored that the repairs to the Terror are finished and that she will leave the harbor at once. The signal lights continue and a large number were flashed from the hills. A Spanish vessel entered the harbor at night, showing no lights, rapidly scouted and left immediately.

Polo's Conduct.

His Actions In Canada Are Being Closely Watched.

Washington, May 18.—The continued presence in Canada of Senor Polo y Bernabe, late Spanish minister to this country, and the reports which reach here of his activity there in behalf of the Spanish cause, have given rise to the suggestion that it might be a proper proceeding on the part of this government to direct the attention of the British government to the ex-minister's course as a violation of the neutrality laws.

Certain features of the Spanish diplomat's conduct, it is known, have been brought to the attention of the state department, but there is the highest possible authority for the assertion that no protest has been made to the British government, nor is any contemplated at the present time.

Will Demand His Release.

Ottawa, Ont., May 18.—Sir Louis Davies, minister of marine, in response to a telegram making inquiries about Freeman Halstead, the Canadian newspaper man reported to have been arrested and shot by Spaniards at San Juan, has received the following dispatch from the British consul at San Juan: "Halstead arrested for photographing new forts; tried by court martial; sentenced nine years imprisonment." The secretary of state is inquiring into the circumstances surrounding the arrest of Halstead. He is a British subject and the Canadian government will doubtless demand his release through the imperial authorities.

New Spanish Ministry.

Madrid, May 18.—It is announced semi-officially that the reconstructed cabinet probably will be made up as follows: President of the council, Senor Praxedes Sagasta; minister of war, Lieutenant General Correa; minister of marine, Vice Admiral Butler; minister of the colonies, Senor Gamazo; minister of finance, Senor Lopez Puigcerver; minister of the interior, Senor F. R. Capdepon; minister of justice, Senor C. Grolard; minister of public instruction, Senor Romero Giron.

Drafting the Cubans.

Havana, May 18.—All insurgent sympathizers are being forced into the Spanish army. It is known they will surrender to the Americans at the first opportunity.

Russian Ambassador

Instructed to Demand an Explanation of Chamberlain's Speech.

London, May 18.—The Russian ambassador has been directed to demand from Lord Salisbury an explanation of Mr. Chamberlain's assertion that Russia is ineligible for an alliance because of her perfidy.

The prevailing opinion now is that Mr. Chamberlain's speech, in which he advocated the Anglo-Saxon alliance, was a grievous indiscretion.

It has excited jealousies and resentment throughout Europe without promising to attain any compensatory advantage.

His indirect calling the czar "the devil" is sure, it is believed, to give undying offense to St. Petersburg.

Mr. Chamberlain's main and immediate object is known to be to force France to evacuate Broussa, West Africa, even at the risk of war.

Cincinnati, May 18.—The Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers began their twenty-third annual convention here, over 200 delegates being present and President Shaffer presiding.

Contrary to expectations, it seems probable since the delegates have come together that there will be no change in the present scale. The by-laws provide for readjustment every 60 days, and this matter will likely not be considered till after the expiration of the present scale, June 30.

Waiting For the Sneaks.

Washington, May 18.—The general impression is that no particular effort is to be made just now to pursue the Spaniards so long as they keep within the confines of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean sea, but that Sampson

THE BLOCKADE IS RIGID

Dewey Has Manilla Completely
Hemmed In.

REBELS NOT SAFE ALLIES.

Their Religious Prejudice Is Being Appealed To.

SORT OF HOLY WAR TO BE WAGED

Heretics Not to Be Allowed to Bar Out
Immortal Souls, If Christians, In Defense of Their Faith,
Can Prevent It by Force of Arms.

Hongkong, May 18.—The steamer Esmeralda, which has just arrived from Manilla with 400 refugees, chiefly Chinese, reports that the United States cruisers Concord and Boston are going to Illoilo, where they expect prompt capitulation and to recapture the American ship Saranak, with a cargo of coal. The blockade of Manilla is extremely rigid and several foreign ships have been refused admittance.

The rebels are useless as allies of Admiral Dewey. They are utterly disunited, quite half of them being in favor of Spain. The Cavite arsenal was found empty. Colonel Miguel of the artillery committed suicide because he discovered that the ammunition was non-existent.

Captain General Augusti is trying to conciliate the rebels and has authorized the establishment of native councils. The archbishop of Manilla, in a pastoral issued on the 8th inst., said: "Christians, defend your faith against heretics who raise an insuperable barrier to immortal souls, enslave the people, abolish crosses from cemeteries, forbid pastors to perform baptism, matrimony or funeral rites, or to administer consolation or grant absolution."

Pending the arrival of troops from the United States the Americans defer hostilities ashore.

BLOCKADING FLEET

Are Anxiously Awaiting the Appearance of Spanish Squadron.

Key West, May 18.—The ships of the American blockading squadron are keeping a vigilant watch for the appearance of the Spanish fleet, and will not be taken by surprise should the Spanish men-of-war round Cape Antonio, the westernmost point of Cuba and swoop down upon Havana.

All our ships have been warned by Commodore Watson of the possibility of such a move and sailors are kept constantly in the tops, where they can sweep the horizon for 30 miles, looking out for the first sign of a hostile ship.

All the naval officers on the blockade station are anxious for a meeting with the Spaniards, and when informed that the latest reports placed them off the coast of Venezuela they jubilantly declared that the enemy could be hemmed in between the Windward islands and the Yucatan channel, to be destroyed.

The torpedo boats and fast yachts of the auxiliary fleet keep the blockading ships in constant communication with Key West, whence the movements of vessels are being directed.

The blockade of Havana has been maintained without incident since the Conde Vendito and Legazpi attempted to draw our ships under the big guns of the Santa Clara battery on Saturday.

Went to the Bottom.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., May 18.—One-half of the United States revenue cutter Gresham went to the bottom of the St. Lawrence river and now rests in 25 feet of water. The steamer had been cut in two and pontooned for passage through the Canadian canals to Montreal, where she was to be reunited and sent to join the navy. While waiting for the tugs to start down the river the bow section, 48 feet in length, suddenly careened to one side, forcing that pontoon under the water. The upper pontoon then shifted position drawing the other pontoon entirely away from the boat section almost turning it bottom up. Fourteen seamen were thrown into the water, but all escaped.

Worse Than Reported.

Washington, May 18.—Reports received here from Key West show that the condition of the little torpedo boat Winslow is much worse than was supposed and it will be necessary, in all probability, to have her come to Norfolk for repairs. One shot smashed her low pressure starboard cylinder and another traversed one of her boilers. It would be possible to get along under one boiler and reduce the starboard engine from a quadruple to a triple expansion, but the efficiency of the boat would be very much lowered thereby.

Reprisals Are Demanded.

Madrid, May 18.—The newspapers here assert that letters for Spain, even letters containing checks and other valuables, have been stopped at New York and destroyed. The papers demand that the government make reprisals upon Americans resident in Spain, especially in the case of correspondence of American newspapers.

Wants More Regulars.

Washington, May 18.—Colonel R. P. Hughes, inspector general, with headquarters at New York city, was at the war department on a mission from General Merritt in connection with the assignment of regular troops to accompany the Philippine expedition soon to start from San Francisco. There are not enough regulars in the west to furnish the number that General Merritt thinks should be sent on the expedition, and consequently Secretary Alger and the department officials have been considering the advisability of withdrawing about three of the infantry regiments from Tampa.

Feel No Apprehension.

Washington, May 18.—The department professes to feel no apprehension that Admiral Dewey or his men are in any wise endangered by their occupation of Manilla harbor on the present basis, but this can not be said of the unfortunate inhabitants of Manilla if the present situation is protracted unduly. It is no small matter to organize and transport an expedition of 12,000 or 13,000 soldiers 6,000 miles across the sea at short notice, and the indications are that within a week some of the soldiers at least will be on their way from San Francisco.

Ohio's Artillery Arrives.

Chickamauga National Park, Ga., May 18.—At 6 o'clock Tuesday evening 11 regiments of infantry, one of cavalry and five of light artillery—12,000 men all told—had reported to General Brooke, in command of the Chickamauga army. The First battalion, First Ohio light artillery, arrived at noon on one train, 406 men and officers, under command of Major Charles T. Atwell. They are thoroughly equipped with camping outfit, uniforms and side arms, but will be equipped with field guns by the ordnance department here.

Held as Spies.

Madrid, May 18.—It is announced here in a dispatch from Havana that after the arrival of the Uncas off that port the two captured American newspaper men were examined, and it is added that the inquiry revealed the fact that they could not be considered as prisoners of war, but must be locked up as spies, one being, it is claimed, a Cuban employed in Havana.

It is further alleged that upon the prisoners were found revolvers, cartridges, interesting documents and a camera.

Almost Ready to Sail.

San Francisco, May 18.—The Charleson is preparing to sail for Manilla within the next 24 hours. The newspaper correspondents who have been detailed to join them have gone to Mare Island pursuant to instructions received from Commander Glass. It is now certain that she will precede the City of Peking, which is to take the first detachment of troops to the Philippines.

An Old Hulk Sunk.

Key West, May 18.—The United States cruiser Wilmington fired upon and sunk an old ship the Spaniards had loaded with old iron and set afloat off Havana.

Capitulation Is Expected.

Hongkong, May 18.—It is expected, owing to the blockade and resultant famine, that Manilla will soon capitulate.

Merritt Was Right.

Washington, May 18.—There are indications that the war department has been brought to see the wisdom and fairness of the suggestions thrown out by Major General Merritt that his expedition should consist of not less than 15,000 men, and that at least a third of them should be seasoned troops from the regular army capable of meeting on even terms the veteran Spanish soldiers who garrison Manilla.

Pressure Brought to Bear.

Washington, May 18.—Considerable pressure has come upon the administration from congressional quarters to have the campaign hastened, and there are thought to be signs of a resumption of the plans of the military leaders for the invasion of Cuba at the point where they were suddenly suspended by the announcement of the arrival of the Spanish flying squadron at Martinique.

Off the Coast of Venezuela.

Curacao, Dutch West Indies, May 18.—The Spanish fleet is now supposed to be off the coast of Venezuela, or off the coast of Colombia. Only a portion of the fleet was allowed to enter this harbor to obtain provisions, cattle and coal, which were purchased here. Confirmation was obtained of the report that the Spaniards left one of their torpedo gunboats at Fort de France, Martinique.

GLASS PROPERTY SOLD

Value of Plant Said to Be Three Hundred Thousand.

WORKS SOLD BY TRUSTEES.

The Property Is In the Gas Belt and Owns Some Valuable Wells and Leases, Which Are Included
In the Transfer.

New Albany, Ind., May 18.—The property of the W. C. DePauw Glass company was sold at trustee's sale in this city for $161,300. The Union Trust company, representing Newland T. DePauw of this city and others, was the purchaser.

The sale included the plants at New Albany and Alexandria, Ind., a number of lots at Alexandria, 54 shares of stock in the American Plate Glass company, the gas wells and leases in the Indiana gas belt, all tools, implements and material of the company, together with all promissory notes, accounts and bills receivable. The estimated value of the property sold is $300,000.

Wages Not Reduced.

Anderson, Ind., May 18.—Intervention of the Indiana labor commission and a consultation between managers and workers at the American plate glass plants in this county resulted in the strike and threatening trouble being settled by the company withdrawing the wage reductions announced. The strikers and all others went to work at their old wages. The reductions in the wages of office employees and officers has not been changed, however, and they stand as announced, about 50 per cent cut.

Riggs Secures a New Trial.

Frankfort, Ky., May 18.—The court of appeals reversed the lower court in the case of Amos Riggs of Maysville against the Commonwealth. Riggs was sentenced by the circuit court of Mason county to hang for murder. Riggs is a noted criminal and is said to have killed several men prior to the killing for which he was on trial in the present instance. The reversal sends the case back for a new trial. About a year ago Riggs killed William R. Boyd and a son of Boyd, the latter being Riggs' son-in-law.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hambrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

MAJOR STANTON'S POEMS.

Taey Will Probably Be Collected and Published in Book Form By His Widow.

[Courier-Journal.]

As is well known to thousands of Kentuckians, Major Henry T. Stanton, who died a few days since in Frankfort, was an inexhaustible source of delight and entertainment to those with whom he was thrown in contact. He was full of kindness and genial good humor, besides being a man of vast experience and of scholarly attainments. It is also well known that he was in the front rank of Western poets. He was a bubbling spring of melody. He did not labor at his work. Sometimes he would not write a verse for days or weeks, and his mind would seem to be engrossed with other things, when suddenly he would sit down and at lightning speed dash off a poem, put it in an envelope and mail it to one of the leading magazines, in which it would in due time appear.

Major Stanton never cared for money—in fact, he seemed to think that it was made simply to spend—and it was needless to say that when he died he was a poor man. In this connection it has been suggested that he has left a heritage of greater value than that bequeathed by many more practical men; and that Mrs. Stanton could realize a handsome sum by collecting his poems and publishing them in book form, together with a sketch of his life. The book would have an intrinsic value in itself, and aside from this it would no doubt find a ready sale among his large circle of friends who would be glad of an opportunity to obtain such a memento of the dead poet.

THE RIGGS CASE.

The Slayer of the Boyds Granted a New Trial By the Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals Tuesday passed on the case of the Commonwealth against Amos Riggs.

The judgment of the Mason Circuit Court was reversed, and the defendant granted a new trial.

The opinion of the upper court is by Judge Hazelrigg and the decision of the Circuit Court is reversed on the ground that evidence was admitted which was incompetent and highly prejudicial to the substantial rights of the defendant.

Riggs was convicted at the March term of the Circuit Court of the murder of W. R. Boyd and Mandeville Boyd near Mt. Gilead a year or so ago. The latter was a son of W. R. Boyd and a son-in-law of Riggs. The trouble originated over the elopement of young Boyd with Riggs' daughter and their marriage at Flemingsburg, and sensational reports started subsequently regarding the previous conduct of Riggs towards his daughter. He was defended by Judge Phister and E. Q. Crain, the latter of Batavia, O. Their motion for a new trial was based upon about twenty grounds, among them the admission of incompetent and prejudicial evidence. It was overruled by Judge Harbeson, who then sentenced Riggs to be executed May 6. Pending the appeal an indefinite stay of execution was granted, and the case now comes back for a new trial.

The sentiment against Riggs is very strong in the vicinity of the crime, and since his conviction his family, it is reported, have been driven out of the neighborhood.

A Magnificent Display of Clothing, Gent's Furnishings and Shoes, is That of Hechinger & Co., the Oddfellows' Hall Clothiers.

Among the many elegant city-like business houses in our town that of HECHINGER & CO. ranks among the A 1. Nowhere will you find an establishment of its kind that carries a more elegant line of merchandise pertaining to their business than they do. With them you find Suits for Men, Boys and Children that are perfect gems in the art of ready-to-wear Clothing. Their stock of is perfectly bewildering in the number of styles and fashions. In MEN'S FINE SHOES the house stands pre-eminent.

Visitors in our city during this week after looking at the display HECHINGER & CO. make in their windows will agree with us that their mammoth establishment would be an honor to cities many times larger than Maysville. We can safely add that all visitors that call in at their store will be cleverly treated.

ON THE CUBAN COAST

A Maysvillian Tells of the Attempts To Land Arms For the Insurgents.

Transport Gussie Was Watched Too Closely by the Spanish Troops—Two Skirmishes.

[Correspondence BULLETIN.]

ON THE HIGH SEAS ABOARD THE MORGAN LINE STEAMER GUSSE (TRANSPORT) May 13, 10 a. m.

We left Key West May 9th under supervision of Captain Dorst, Fourth U. S. Cavalry, with two picked companies of our regiment—Company "E," under Captain J. J. O'Connell and Company "G," under command of Capt. Nat P. Phister, of Maysville.

We had on board some Cuban insurgent officers, who wanted to join General Gomez, and an immense quantity of rifles and all sorts of explosives and general implements of war which we have been trying to land at any point in Cuba for the insurgents for use against the Spanish army.

While we were landing three insurgent officers yesterday about 3 o'clock we were attacked from the shore by about five troops of Spanish cavalry. The bullets from the enemy whizzed d-n close to our heads. Fortunately we were escorted by the gunboat Manning and the patrol boat Wasp. They rendered us great assistance, and dispersed the Spanish forces. We succeeded in landing the three officers and horses. The mission of these officers was to communicate with the army of Gomez and arrange for the Cubans to meet us and receive the cargo.

At this very moment we are sailing off the province of Pinar del Rio. All day yesterday we were fired at from the coast by riflemen of Spain, but we did not return the fire until we landed at 3 p. m. The result of yesterday's engagement was several Spanish killed and one captured. We have that poor son of a gun aboard now.

From information received the Spanish soldiers along the coast are short on rations and many of them have only sweet potatoes, and only few of them, for subsistence.

I forgot to say that our loss was nothing but some powder and shot. We, however, found it impracticable to make any further attempt to land last night, so we pulled out to sea to await for daylight to-day for further experiments. Since 4 o'clock this morning we have been cruising along the coast close to shore looking out for insurgents so as to land our supplies, but instead of seeing them, we met lots of Spanish field artillery. They fired upon us, the shell and solid shot coming close around our vessel. Their fire was returned by the Manning and the Wasp, while we steamed out to sea to get out of range. The scrap lasted about one hour, between 9 and 10 a. m. We destroyed one of their forts near Muriel during the engagement. Result of this encounter: Spanish loss unknown, but it must have been considerable from the looks of the hits made by our side. Our loss, same as first, nothing but shot and shell.

We have rations aboard for about one month, but coal and water for only eight days. We are still trying to land our cargo. I at present think we will eventually have to give up our mission and return to Key West, as I think the Spaniards have got onto our scheme and have the Cubans driven back into the mountains and interior, as well as having the coast too well guarded for our small force, which consists of only seven officers and 106 men. However, if any honor of firing the first shot on Spaniards in Cuba by our forces is worth anything, we have it,—fighting "G" and "E," formerly of California, which was Gen. Shafter's old regiment.

It is quite a sight to see the naval display between Key West and Cuba. The blockade established by our navy is perfect. Since we have been at sea we have had shots fired across our bow at night on many occasions. Of course we would have to, and get permission to go ahead.

We have tugs with the fleet with special reporters from all the large dailies. The best paper tug and reporter that I have seen are the ones from the New York World. The tug is of the finest and the reporter is the best all around hustler I have ever seen. Every time we get ready for action we get about a dozen Kodaks at us. Good bye. I will write again. A MAYSVILLE BOY.

TEN EYCK BARRED OUT.

Henley Stewards Refuse to Let Him Race in the Regatta on the Thames.

E. H. Ten Eyck, winner of the diamond sculls at Henley last year, when shown the press dispatch at Philadelphia from London stating that his entry for this year's race had been refused by the Henley stewards, said:

"I am not surprised to hear this. In fact, it has looked all along as if they intended to bar me out. The fact that no reason is given for my disqualification is significant in itself. I am simply not wanted, and that is all there is to it."

James Ten Eyck, father of the oarsman, said:

"This is an outrage and an insult to the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, and I shall be greatly surprised if some action is not taken by that body."

Young Ten Eyck is a student in the dental department of the University of Pennsylvania. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Barge club, and it was stated that he will surely compete in the national regatta to be held on the Schuylkill river July 30.

Washington, May 18.—Among the army and navy appointments was George S. Hobart of New Jersey, to be assistant adjutant general with rank of major.
